Resident Artwork Takes Center Stage for the Resident Art Calendar 'Art in the Park'

Inspiration can come from anywhere, a person's own experience, an inanimate object, a simple thought or anything that ignites the mind's ability to imagine. But to find and hold on to inspiration and cultivate it into a beautiful work of art is a magnificent portrayal of a person's artistic ability. The tremendous response from residents throughout the communities of our membership was astounding. The Aging Services of Washington's Resident Art Calendar, 'Art in the Park' could not have been a greater success without the talented work of all the residents that participated.
